

THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 1.01

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDERS: PROCEDURES AND ORGANIZATION

In order to update the organizational system and procedures for promulgating and distributing administrative orders to reflect current practices and to make administrative orders more accessible and user friendly, in compliance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(b)(2) and (e),

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Organization by Subject Matter

All administrative orders shall be organized into sections based on the following subject matters:

- Section 1: Judicial Administration
- Section 2: Appellate
- Section 3: Civil
- Section 4: Criminal
- Section 5: Family
- Section 6: Juvenile
- Section 7: Probate/Guardianship
- Section 8: Traffic
- Section 9: Judicial Assignments
- Section 10: Internal
- Section 11: Security/Emergency
- Section 12: Canvassing Boards

2. Numbering of Administrative Orders

The administrative order number format will consist of characters separated by a decimal point. The character(s) to the left of the decimal point shall correspond to the appropriate section number based on the order's subject matter. The characters to the right of the decimal point shall be a unique two-digit number assigned sequentially, followed by a numerical suffix in the form "(v__)" to indicate the version of the order. For example, an administrative order number of 1.02 (v1) would indicate that the subject matter of the order falls within Section 1, Judicial Administration, sequentially it is the second order within that section, and it is the initial version of that order.

If it is necessary to amend, restate, or supersede an existing order, the administrative order number of the new order shall be the same as it was for the prior order except that the version suffix number shall be changed accordingly, unless the Chief Judge determines that it is necessary or desirable to utilize a new administrative order number. For example, the suffix "(v2)" in administrative order number 1.02 (v2) would indicate that version (v2) of the order amends, restates, or supersedes version (v1) in its entirety.

There shall be no supplemental orders to existing orders. Rather, if it is necessary to supplement an existing order, the existing order shall be amended and restated in its entirety with either a new version suffix or a new administrative order number, as described in the preceding paragraphs.

3. Formatting of Administrative Orders

The page margins of an administrative order shall be one inch.

The text of an administrative order shall be typewritten in sans serif font of at least 12 points in size, except that footers, footnotes, and endnotes may be 10 points in size.

The title of an administrative order shall be in all capitalized letters and shall commence with the words "THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO.”, followed by the administrative order number (less its version suffix) and a brief description of the main subject of the administrative order.

An administrative order ordinarily will not have a header.

An administrative order shall have a footer on each page which specifies the administrative order number (including its version suffix) prefaced by “AO”, the subject of the administrative order from its title, the page number, and the effective date of the administrative order. Whenever an administrative order has one or more exhibits, each exhibit shall ordinarily have a footer on each page indicating that it is an exhibit to the administrative order and containing the exhibit title and the exhibit page number. All footers shall ordinarily be spaced at least 0.5” from the edge of the page.

An administrative order shall be formatted in a manner that complies with all state and federal laws requiring electronic accessibility to persons with disabilities. These requirements include compliance with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act, and Section 508 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as incorporated into Florida law by Section 282.603(1), Florida Statutes. If any of the formatting requirements prescribed in this administrative order are not in compliance with these laws, the non-compliant formatting requirements shall not apply.

4. Re-Numbering and Re-Formatting of Current Orders

All administrative orders currently in effect shall be re-numbered as shown on the conversion chart attached hereto as Exhibit “A”. The Trial Court Administrator shall cause all administrative orders currently in effect to be reformatted according to the specifications of this order. The Chief Judge shall execute the renumbered and reformatted orders nunc pro tunc to their original effective dates, unless the renumbered and reformatted administrative orders also contain substantive updates, in which event they shall have new effective dates.

5. Procedure for Formulation of New or Amended Orders

Administrative orders are issued, amended, or rescinded by the Chief Judge.

Any person who wishes to propose a new administrative order or amendments to an existing administrative order may submit the proposal to the Trial Court Administrator or the Chief Judge.

Prior to entering a new administrative order or amending an existing administrative order, the Chief Judge will:

(1) Circulate a draft to all judges of the Eighth Judicial Circuit and provide them with a period of one (1) week to review and comment on the draft, unless an emergency, security issue, or other similar exigent circumstances demand that the Chief Judge take immediate action; and

(2) Consider whether it is necessary, appropriate, or desirable to obtain the viewpoints of other persons, including but not limited to, magistrates and hearing officers of the Eighth Judicial Circuit, personnel within the Office of Court Administration, former judges of the Eighth Judicial Circuit, current and former judges in other jurisdictions, Clerks of Court, other Constitutional officers, or leadership or members of The Florida Bar or the Eighth Judicial Circuit Bar Association. If other viewpoints are necessary, appropriate, or desirable, the Chief Judge will consult with those other persons in the manner the Chief Judge determines appropriate.

6. Mandatory Content

The opening text of the body of an administrative order shall set forth the need or purpose for the order and citations to applicable law, followed by the Chief Judge's ruling(s). The text of an administrative order shall also specify the administrative order number, title, and date of any prior order that is superseded or rescinded by the order being entered.

7. Effective Date of Administrative Orders

An administrative order becomes effective on the date it is executed by the Chief Judge, unless otherwise specified within the order.

8. Repository for Original Orders

The Office of Court Administration shall be the repository for all original administrative orders, both current and rescinded. The Trial Court Administrator shall cause all original administrative orders to be catalogued and maintained within the Office of Court Administration. The Trial Court Administrator shall cause original superseded or rescinded orders to be archived, not destroyed. Cataloguing, maintenance, and storage of administrative orders may be done electronically.

9. Clerk of Court Official Records

In accordance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(e)(3), all administrative orders of a general and continuing nature, and all others designated by the Chief Judge, shall be indexed and recorded by the Clerk of Court in each county within the Eighth Judicial Circuit where the orders are effective, whereupon the recorded administrative order shall be a public record. To accomplish same, the Trial Court Administrator shall cause copies of the administrative order to be delivered to the applicable Clerks of Court. Each Clerk of Court shall record the copy and return it to the Trial Court Administrator. The Trial Court Administrator may dispose of the recorded paper copy returned from the Clerk of Court in compliance with applicable records retention policies.

10. Electronic Publication

As soon as practicable following entry of this administrative order, the Trial Court Administrator shall cause the administrative orders conversion chart attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and all reformatted administrative orders to be published on the official website of the Eighth Judicial Circuit of Florida in a manner that complies with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act, and Section 508 of the federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as incorporated into Florida law by Section 282.603(1), Florida Statutes.

11. Distribution of Newly Issued Orders

As soon as practicable following entry of an administrative order, the Trial Court Administrator shall cause a copy of the order to be distributed to all judges, magistrates, hearing officers and Clerks of Court within the Eighth Judicial Circuit; all directors within the Office of Court Administration; the President of the Eighth Judicial Circuit Bar Association; and such other persons as the Chief Judge or the Trial Court Administrator determines is appropriate.

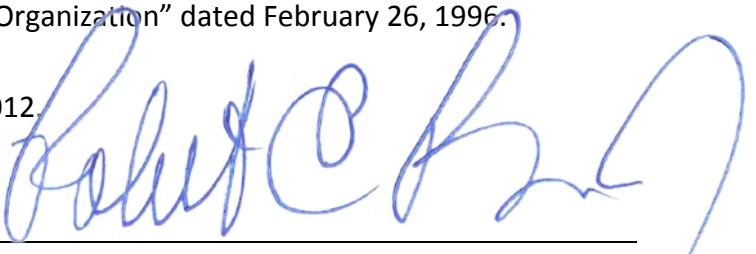

12. Periodic Review of Administrative Orders

In accordance with Florida Rule of Judicial Administration 2.215(e)(3), on an annual basis coinciding with the conclusion of the fiscal year and on such other dates as the Chief Judge determines is appropriate, the Chief Judge shall direct a review of current administrative orders and shall rescind and vacate any administrative orders found to be unnecessary or outdated.

13. Identification of Prior Order Rescinded

This order supersedes and rescinds prior Administrative Order No. 1.000(A) entitled "Administrative Orders: Procedures & Organization" dated February 26, 1996.

ORDERED ON this 21st day of August, 2012.

Robert E. Roundtree, Jr., Chief Judge
