

THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF FLORIDA
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 11.19

IN RE: MICHAEL GEARY WILSON

In order to provide for the requirements of the Eighth Judicial Circuit regarding the lawful admission of Michael Geary Wilson's into the Alachua Family and Civil Justice Center (hereinafter referred to as "the courthouse"); and

Pursuant to the authority of Article V, section 2(d), of the Florida Constitution, Fla. R. Jud. Admin. 2.215 and 2.450, and section 43.26, Florida Statutes, which authorize the Chief Judge of the circuit to administratively supervise the circuit and county courts in her circuit; and

It having become known to the Court that MICHAEL GEARY WILSON, a pro se litigant with pending family division and county civil division cases, has disrupted the orderly administration of justice on multiple occasions including but not limited to the following: on August 4, 2009, loudly arguing with Judge Frederick Smith's judicial assistant in Judge Smith's office to the extent that the duress alarm was triggered, requiring an emergency response from court security personnel; on October 28, 2009, approaching his wife's counsel outside the courthouse elevator in a hostile and belligerent manner, then aggressively confronting the deputy who was escorting him by standing within 18 inches from the deputy's face and refusing to calm down; on October 29, 2009, videotaping the first floor of the courthouse in a manner that obstructed and impeded the entry of persons into the courthouse; on October 30, 2009, stating to court security personnel, while videotaping, that he wanted to be arrested; and, on November 2, 2009, engaging in hostile and disruptive behavior towards the Chief Judge's judicial assistant while attempting to videotape her in the Chief Judge's office; and

It having become known to the Court that, on at least one occasion, MICHAEL GEARY WILSON has failed to cooperate with reasonable steps taken to manage the threat in the least restrictive manner possible by attempting to elude the deputy who was directed to escort him within the courthouse; it is therefore

ORDERED:

1. Michael Geary Wilson is prohibited from entering the Alachua Family and Civil Justice Center, 201 East University Avenue, Gainesville, Florida (hereafter sometimes referred to as the courthouse) except on lawful business. The lawful business of Michael Geary Wilson in the Alachua County Family and Civil Justice Center is limited to his appearance at a scheduled court event in response to an order issued to him and reasonable access to his court files. Though Mr. Wilson will not be able to use the law library located in the courthouse, his ability to conduct legal research will not be hindered. He will continue to have access the legal resources available at the public library and at the University of Florida law library.

2. If Michael Geary Wilson appears in the Alachua Family and Civil Justice Center on lawful business, he shall be escorted by a deputy to the place within the courthouse where he may discharge his business lawfully. He shall remain under escort by a deputy for any scheduled court appearance for as long as he is in the courthouse discharging his lawful business, and he shall then be escorted out of the courthouse.

3. If Michael Geary Wilson enters the Alachua Family and Civil Justice Center for any reason other than for lawful business, he may be issued a trespass warning by court security personnel. If he then enters the courthouse again for any reason other than for lawful business, the trespass warning which was issued against him may be executed, and Michael Geary Wilson may henceforth be subject to arrest for violation of the trespass warning.

4. Michael Geary Wilson is prohibited from bringing any electronic device into the courthouse. Mr. Wilson has continuously abused the right to use such devices by: deliberately and surreptitiously recording his court proceedings in contravention of oral and written orders of the judges presiding in his pending cases; videotaping in the hallways of the courthouse in such a manner that it has caused disruptions; and, by recording court personnel in judicial offices without their consent.

5. Michael Geary Wilson shall have weekday access to his court files in the Clerk of Court's office between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m. for a period of thirty (30) minutes.

Upon his arrival at the courthouse, Mr. Wilson shall be escorted by a deputy to the Clerk of Court's Research Department.

If Mr. Wilson abuses his right to access the Clerk of Court's research room by behaving in a manner that is disruptive, intimidating, or threatening, he shall be issued a trespass warning and thereafter be required to inquire as to his court files through correspondence with the Clerk of Court's office.

This order renumbers and reformats prior Administrative Order No. 8.1204 entitled "In Re: Michael Geary Wilson."

ORDERED ON this 8th day of October, 2012 nunc pro tunc November 3, 2009.
