THE HONORABLE VICTOR L. HULSLANDER RETIRING

GAINESVILLE, ALACHUA COUNTY, FL – After 13 years of service to the Eighth Judicial Circuit, which includes, Alachua, Baker, Bradford, Gilchrist, Levy, and Union counties, the Honorable Victor L. Hulslander will retire on December 31, 2018.

Judge Hulslander received his bachelor’s degree and his Juris Doctor from the University of Florida. Prior to taking the bench, he practiced as an assistant public defender in the Eighth Judicial Circuit and was engaged in the private practice of law, representing clients in civil and criminal matters.

Judge Hulslander was appointed to the Alachua County Court in 2005 by Governor Jeb Bush, where he served until his appointment to the Circuit bench by Governor Charlie Christ in 2010. Judge Hulslander has served the Eighth Judicial Circuit as Administrative Judge of County Court as well as Circuit Civil.

Throughout his career, Judge Hulslander contributed to the larger legal community through his service on statewide committees; including the Supreme Court Select Committee on Justice Teaching, Education Committee of the Florida Conference of Circuit Judges, and the Trial Court Performance and Accountability Commission. He’s been an active mentor to younger lawyers, through his teaching at the University of Florida School of Law, as well as his work with Educate the Eighth, a landmark program that he designed to help young lawyers hone their trial skills.
