

GUARDIAN ADVOCATE INFORMATION

For Persons with a Developmental Disability

What is a Guardian Advocate?

Often a Guardian Advocate needs to be appointed when a person with a developmental disability turns 18 years old. Upon becoming an adult, the parent no longer has the legal ability to make decisions for them. To qualify under Florida Statutes, the person with a developmental disability must have a disorder or syndrome that is attributable to retardation, cerebral palsy, autism, spina bifida, or Prader-Willi syndrome; that manifests before the age of 18; and constitutes a substantial handicap that can reasonably be expected to continue indefinitely.

Guardian Advocacy is a process for families, caregivers, and friends of individuals with a developmental disability to obtain a guardianship without declaring the individual incompetent. Guardian Advocate appointments are governed by Florida Statute Section 393.12. The appointment of a Guardian Advocate allows the guardian to make decisions for the person with a developmental disability. Not everyone with a developmental disability needs a legal guardian. One is necessary if the person lacks the decision-making ability to make necessary decisions relating to daily life. During any Guardian Advocate proceedings the Court will appoint an attorney for the person with a developmental disability to ensure their best interest is protected.

The Guardian Advocate is responsible for only those duties approved by the Judge and listed in the Court Order. The process of becoming a Guardian Advocate of the person does not require the hiring of an attorney. If there is property involved, other than social security benefits or other government payee programs, the person seeking to become a Guardian Advocate of the person and the property must hire an attorney. These property rights include, but are not limited to: a pending law suit, estate matter, or other income or property right coming to the person with a developmental disability. The Court can expand the description of property rights by Petition and Order.

Background Check & Credit History Investigation Requirements:

Florida Statute section 744.3135 allows the court to require a non-professional Guardian Advocate to submit, at their own expense, to an investigation of the Guardian Advocate's credit history and to a level 2 background screening prior to being appointed to serve as Guardian Advocate. Online services offer credit history reports. The Guardian Advocate must contact the Clerk of Court to obtain a fingerprinting form for the background screening. The Guardian Advocate may be fingerprinted by any of the vendors approved by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. A list of vendors can be found at <https://www.fdle.state.fl.us/cms/Criminal-History-Records/Documents/ApplicantLivescanService-ProvidersVendors.aspx> The cost for the Alachua County Sheriff's office is approximately $46.00. If the guardian cannot afford the cost of the fingerprinting, the guardian may file a motion to be reimbursed for the cost of the fingerprinting and an affidavit of indigence that reflects the guardian's finances. The background check and credit history investigation must be completed before a hearing for appointment as Guardian Advocate can be scheduled.
